

The 2nd International Forum in Finland “Education, School and Energy Efficiency and co-operation with Local Community”

Time: Monday 08.03.2010, 13.00 - 16.30.

Place: JÄRVENPÄÄ-TALO / JÄRVENPÄÄ HALL
Juhani Aho-Sali, Hallintokatu 4, 04400 JÄRVENPÄÄ

Registration: latest 19.2.2010 by email risto.tenhunen@eco-one.fi

EGS- International forum objectives are: to present EGS-project and developed tools and have a viewpoint to sustainable development and energy efficiency in vocational and high schools in Europe; To exchange information of good practices and methods; To discuss needs and possibilities from all stakeholders' point of view.

Program

12.30	Registration
13.00	Opening of the Forum	Project Manager Risto Tenhunen Eco-One, FINLAND
13.05	EGS –project aims and objectives - Education and energy efficiency in Italian schools	Project Coordinator Dr. Marco Davette Liceo Tron, ITALY
13.25	Sustainable development in curricula of vocational education in Finland	Counsellor of Education Susanna Tauriainen National Board of Education, FINLAND
13.40	Sustainable development criteria and certification system for educational establishments in Finland	Planning Manager Erkka Laininen SD certification, OKKA Foundation, FINLAND
14.00	Education and energy efficiency in German schools	Chairman, Tilman Langner Environmental Office North Ass. , GERMANY
14.20	KALEVALA- The roots of the Finnish language and culture (Collector Elias Lönnrot in the middle of 19 th century)	Performed by Ilmari Lönnrot
14.25	Break
14.50	Opening of the forum panel and short presentations on energy education and energy efficiency (10 minutes)	Panel chair, Project Manager Kati Lundgren SYKLI Environmental School of Finland, FINLAND
	Energy efficiency - a current challenge in education and capacity building	Consultant Irmeli Mikkonen Motiva ltd, FINLAND
	Energy aspects at workplace and on the job learning	Project Manager Kati Sorvali, Snellman Kokkikartano ltd, FINLAND
	Education and energy efficiency in Italian schools	?, Romania
	Education and energy efficiency in Austrian schools	?, AUSTRIA
	Sustainable development and energy efficiency in Keuda, Finland	Head of Unit Eira Bani, Keuda Järvenpää Services, FINLAND
15.50	Open discussion
16.30	End of the Forum

More information:

Risto Tenhunen, EGS –project, Osuuskunta Eco-One
risto.tenhunen@eco-one.fi, GSM +358 (0) 400 946612