

International Climate Action Day in Stralsund

Written by Umweltbüro Nord e.V.

The German Partner UBN organized the Climate Action Day in Stralsund, 24th October 2009.

A tree was planted in order to demonstrate, that trees transform carbon dioxide into biomass and, thus, contribute to climate protection. The mayor of Stralsund and the Climate Council of Stralsund were involved.

More information in German: www.umweltschulen.de/egs/klimaaktionstag.html